POINTERS ON THE RACES

Tipsters' Opinions on the Various Winners To-Day.

Programme of the Several Events to Be Run Off,

There are no stake even's to be run off at Jerome Park to-day, and yet the card is infinitely better from a racing point of view than It has been for several days past. Racecoers want good fields, with an element of uncertainty as to the winner. This makes good betting and exciting contests. At whichever track such contests are furnished, there the public will go. There should be there the public will go. There should be quite an increase in the attendance at Jerome to-day. This morning's heavy rain has in all probability converted the track into a mud puddle.
